The Ofqual arrangements for awarding qualifications in summer 2020 state:

Candidates can appeal their grades through their centre if they feel the process this summer was not followed correctly in their case.

You can:

Ask your centre to appeal on your behalf to an awarding body if there is evidence that leads you to believe:

- An administrative error was made by the centre when submitting a centre assessment grade or rank order information
- The awarding body made an administrative error when assigning or communicating a grade

You cannot:

- Appeal against your centre assessed grades and position in the rank order
- Appeal in respect of the process or procedures used by your centre in calculating your centre assessment grades and position in the rank order

Information for candidates

The following information explains what may happen during the appeals process.

If the school submits an application for an appeal on your behalf after your subject grade has been issued, there are three possible outcomes:

- Your original calculated grade is lowered, so your final grade may be lower than the original grade you received.
- Your original calculated grade is confirmed as correct, so there is no change to your grade.
- Your original calculated grade is raised, so your final grade may be higher than the original grade you received.

Awarding Body	Qualification Type (GCSE/ A level)	Subject

Please note that there will be a fee for this service. Details of fees will be available from Mrs Macari.

I give my consent to the head of my school to start the appeals process for the subject(s) listed above. In giving consent I understand that the appeals process could lead to my final calculated subject grade being lower than, higher than, or the same as the result which was originally awarded for this subject.

If you wish to appeal on the above grounds, sign, date and return this form to Mrs Macari c/o the school or as an attachment to examqueries@ripley.lancs.sch.uk by Friday, 11 September
